

LULLABY (FOR SIAN)

©Kath Bee 2006

Close your eyes now you're warm in your bed
Close your eyes and remember the things we shared
Close your eyes and you'll soon be far away
Go to sleep, my love, go to sleep

Sweet dreams taking over your mind
Sweet dreams of whatever your heart desires
Sweet dreams will see you through the night
Go to sleep, my love, go to sleep

Softly shines the pale silvery moon
Through your window and into your room
Softly shines the moon and stars up above
Go to sleep, my love, go to sleep
