It's a time when I can be responsible
And it's a time when I can be dependable
And it's a time when I can be reliable
But I feel like I'm in between

Well it's an age where independence comes along
And it's an age where I should know what's right from wrong
And it's an age where I can feel proud and strong
But it feels like I'm in between

CHORUS

In between – being a kid and being a teen
In between – who I am and who I've been In between – what I'll see and what I've seen Cos it feels like I'm in between

Well it's the years when my opinions start to show
And when I learn much more than I already know
And some of us grow fast and some of us grow slow Cos all of us are in between

BRIDGE

The best thing about this stage
Is choosing to be either age
I don't want to grow up too fast
But I don't want to live in the past
So if I feel like being a kid, I WILL!
And if I need to be more mature, then I can do that, and that's for sure

CHORUS

Well my emotions are confusing me

And my body is changing rapidly

And all of a sudden my parents are soooo silly

DER! How did that happen overnight? They used to be soooo cool!!!
